

Nkechi Madubuko

Raising Empowered Children

A Parent's Guide to Addressing
Racism and Discrimination

Translated by Garry Zettersten

Table of Contents

Our Children Require Safe Spaces – An Introduction	7
Chapter 1: Wounded Souls	13
Recognizing Racism in Daily Life	13
Racial Discrimination: The Harmful Potential of Words and So-Called “Sensitivity”	16
The Importance of Social Relationships, Wellbeing and a Healthy Amount of Self-Confidence	18
The Right to Grow Up Free From Discrimination	23
Daycare and Schools	29
Alternatives: Education in Schools and Daycare that is Conscious of Prejudice	35
Chapter 2: Empowerment – What Does it Mean?	41
The Art of Processing Racism	42
The Empowerment Concept	43
Chapter 3: The Sensibilities of Parents	57
Recognizing Childrens Individual Needs and Personalities	58
Strengthening Your Child’s Personality	59
Establishing Trust	60
Offering Emotional Stability and Showing Understandable Parental Reactions	62
Taking Your Own Feelings and the Experiences of Children Seriously	63
Chapter 4: Dealing with Racism	65
Choose Your Action Strategies Carefully	66
Choosing a Strategy that is Age-Appropriate	67
Choosing a Strategy Based on the Situation	69
Reflection Exercise for Parents: The Influence Worldviews Have on Parenting	74

Chapter 5: Internal Safe Spaces	81
What is an Internal Safe Space?	81
Parenting That Is Conscious of Bias, Instead of Imposing Taboos	83
Finding Yourself in Your Internal Safe Space	85
Intercultural Literature for Children and Teenagers that Consciously Addresses Bias	86
Chapter 6: External Safe Spaces	91
The Importance of Social Contacts within the Community	91
Experiencing Acceptance and Friendship with Children/Adolescents from Non-Immigrant Backgrounds	92
An Excursion: Working with Empowerment in Youth Groups	93
Chapter 7: Problematic Behavior	119
Creating Taboos	120
Accepting Insults	120
Downplaying Events	123
Focusing on Racism	124
Final Considerations	125
Chapter 8: An Action Plan for Future “Empowering Parents”	127
Strengthening Self-Conceptions	127
Strategies and Courses of Action	127
Identity-Establishing Topics for Daily Life	128
Appendix	129
Glossary	129
Literature	133
Workshops	143
A Selection of Freelance Trainers	144